T002 What is this called?
T003 What is the name of a book called, Rebecca?
Cd: C004 Title.
Tr: T005 The title.
T006 Good girl.
Cd: C007 Can't see from here.
Tr: T008 Well move
T009 so you can see.
Cd: C010 What's that Miss?
Tr: T011 Right.
T012 Silence.
T013 Thank you.
(T1) Scruffy the tugboat was sad. (T2) Scruffy was cross. (T3) Scruffy sniffed his blue smokestack. (T4) A toy store is no place for a red painted tugboat. (T5) I was meant for bigger things. (T6) Then Scruffy sniffed his blue smokestack again.
T014 Who knows what Scruffy is?
T015 Rebecca?
Cd: C016 A tugboat.
Tr: T017 He's a tugboat, isn't he?
T018 Okay.
T019 What are some other animals you can see near the tugboat, near Scruffy?
T020 Christopher?
Cd: C021 Ah ... a aeroplane.
Tr: T022 Good boy.
T023 You can see an aeroplane up here.
T024 Um ... Adrian?
Cd: C025 Um...a teddy bear.
Tr: T026 Yes, a teddy bear.
T027 Shane?
T028 Ah Matthew?
T029 Sorry.
Cd: C030 A horse.
Tr: T031 Yes there's a horse there in the background.
T032 What's this animal here?
T033 Scott?
Cd: C034 A giraffe.
Tr: T035 A giraffe
T036 and there's some gulls there too, isn't there?
T037 Oh.
T038 And there's some wind-up ones down here as well, too.
(T7) The man with the polka dot tie who owned the toyshop picked up the small tugboat. (T8) Perhaps you would not be cross (T9) if you went sailing. (T10) So one night he took Scruffy home to his little boy. (T11) But Scruffy was still cross. (T12) "I won't sail in a bathtub! (T13) A tub is no place for a red-painted tugboat. (T14) I was meant for bigger things."
T039 He's not very happy, is he?
Cdn: C040 No.
Tr: T041 No.

Cd: C042 He's sad.
 Tr: T043 He is sad.
 (T15) The next day the man with the polka polka dot tie and the little boy carried Scruffy to a laughing brook that started high in the hills.
 T044 Who knows what a brook is?
 T045 Or what a brook might be?
 Cd: C046 Water.
 Tr: T047 Renee?
 Cd: C048 A river.
 Tr: T049 A river or a stream.
 T050 Good girl.
 T051 Or a ?
 Cd: C052 Or a lake.
 Tr: T053 Or a creek.
 T054 No, a brook isn't really a lake,
 T055 a brook's more like a stream or a river T056 and most rivers start very, very high up in the hills
 T057 so the water can run down into a river.
 T058 They normally start very, very high up.
 (T16) "Sail, little tugboat," said the man with the polka dot tie (T17) as he placed Scruffy in the brook.
 T059 Do you think Scruffy might be happy now
 T060 or do you think he still might be very cross?
 Cd: C061 Sally, sit on your bottom.
 Cd: C062 Happy.
 Tr: T063 Jenny?
 Cd: C064 Um ... sad.
 Tr: T065 Why is he still sad, do you think?
 Cd: IC01 Because he ...
 Tr: T066 Hold on.
 Cd: C067 Because he's is the little kid is getting a little
 put in the bath.
 Tr: T068 Yeah,
 T069 but he's in the brook
 T070 he's in he's in the stream somewhere.
 T071 Christopher?
 Cd: C072 Sally sit on your bottom.
 Cd: C073 He wants to be bigger.
 Tr: T074 He wants to be bigger, do you think?
 Cd: C075 Sit on your bottom.
 Tr: T076 He might.
 T077 Let's see.
 T078 On your bottoms please everybody.
 T079 Tony, Melissa can't see.
 (T18) But it was spring (T19) and the brook was full to the brim with rushing water.
 Cd: C080 I can't see.
 Tr: T081 Spring is a season ...
 T082 Who knows what happens in springtime?
 IC02 It's not ...
 T083 Is it springtime now?
 Cdn: C084 Yes.
 Tr: T085 No, it's not.
 Cd: C086 It's cold.
 Tr: T087 What happens in springtime?

T088 Ah ... Shane?
 Cd: C089 It gets cold.
 Tr: T090 No ... no.
 T091 Justine?
 Cd: C092 A rainbow comes.
 Tr: T093 In springtime springtime is season
 T094 and spring comes after winter.
 T095 In in wintertime when everything dies and gets very,
 very cold,
 T096 and after that springtime comes
 T097 and it starts to get warmer
 T098 and all the flowers grow
 T099 and the trees get nice and green again
 T100 and it's very, very nice
 T101 and things start to grow.
 T102 It's a very, very nice time.
 T103 All the flowers come out
 T104 and all the trees get all their blossoms
 T105 and it's a very, very good time
 T106 and in some places it rains a lot in spring
 T107 and it has here
 T108 'cause the stream was full to the brim with rushing water.
 (T20) And soon Scruffy was racing away down the stream. (T21) "Come back, little tugboat, come back," cried the man with the polka dot tie. (T22) Scruffy tooted, "Not I, not I, (T23) this is the life for me."
 Cd: C109 I've got a book like that.
 Tr: T110 Shh.
 (T24) All that day Scruffy sailed along with the brook. (T25) Past the meadows filled with cowslips, past the women washing clothes on the bank, past some woods filled with violets.
 T111 See how there's all these flowers out?
 Cd: C112 Yeah.
 Tr: T113 That's how it is in spring.
 T114 In springtime all the flowers come out
 T115 and the hills are lovely and green
 T116 and there's lots of nice water and that.
 (T26) Cows came to the brook (T27) to drink.
 T117 Do you still see women washing their clothes in the river?
 Cdn: C118 Yes.
 Tr: T119 Do you?
 Cd: C120 Yes.
 Cd: C121 No.
 Cdn: C122 Yes.
 Tr: T123 Whose mother goes to the local river
 T124 and washes her clothes in the river?
 T125 Whose mother uses the washing machine in the laundry?
 T126 Hands down.
 T127 I think most mums would wash their clothes in the washing machine
 T128 but a long time ago ladies used to have to go to the river
 T129 to wash their clothes.

T130 They had no washing machines a long time ago.
 T131 They had to go to the river.
 T132 I don't think very many people these days would go to a river
 T133 to wash their clothes.
 (T28) They stood in the cool water (T29) and it was fun to sail around between their legs and bump softly into their noses. (T30) It was fun to see them drink. (T31) When a light brown cow almost drank Scruffy instead of the brook's cool water, (T32) Scruffy was frightened. (T33) This was not fun.
 T134 Oh dear!
 T135 What is that?
 T136 We've talked about it.
 T137 Michael?
 Cd: C138 Owl.
 Tr: T139 An owl.
 T140 When do owls come out?
 T141 When do you see owls?
 T142 Renee?
 Cd: C143 In the night time.
 Tr: T144 In the night time, don't you?
 (T34) Night came
 Cdn: C145 Oooo
 Tr: T146 Shh
 Night came, (T35) and with it the moon. (T36) There was nothing to see but the quiet trees. (T37)
 Suddenly an owl called out.
 Cdn: C147 Ooooo
 Tr: (T38) The frightened tugboat tooted his horn, (T39) trying to sound brave. (T40) He wished he could see the smiling face of the man with the polka dot tie.
 (T41) Scruffy was glad (T42) when morning finally came. (T43) At last he could see where he was going.
 T148 Mr. Guvago.
 (T44) He sailed happily about in the warm sunshine
 (T45) watching dragonflies dance about his head.
 (T46) "This is the life for me."
 T149 He's having a good time, isn't he?
 Cdn: C150 Yes.
 Tr: T151 That's right << >> yes,
 T152 <<he is very happy>>.
 T153 There's the dragonflies
 T154 flying around his head.
 T155 All the lovely flowers everywhere.
 T156 He'd feel very happy.
 (T47) But soon Scruffy grew tired of the brook.
 (T48) "I was meant for bigger things. (T49) But which way am I to go?" (T50) There was only one way he could go (T51) and that was with the running water. (T52) Two brooks met (T53) to form a small river, (T54) and down the river sailed Scruffy, the red painted tugboat.
 T157 Mm where is he now?
 T158 Um ... David?
 Cd: C159 In the city.

Tr: T160 In the city.
(T55) He was proud (T56) when he sailed past villages. (T57) He straightened his blue smokestack. (T58) "People build villages at the edge of my river."
T161 There's a man fishing on the pier ... on the wharf.
T162 There's a church up there
T163 and all the lovely houses everywhere
T164 and there is Scruffy.
Cdn: C165 Scruffy.
Tr: T166 Oh what's happening here?
T167 What's happening here Rebecca?
Cd: C168 Go everywhere.
Tr: T169 Ah yes.
Cd: C170 Didn't go everywhere.
Tr: T171 Rory?
Cd: C172 They go everywhere with them.
Tr: T173 There's logs, isn't there?
Cd: C174 Sticks.
Tr: T175 They're not sticks,
T176 they're big logs.
(T59) Scruffy's river became jammed with logs.
(T60) Here were men in heavy jackets and great boots
(T61) walking about on the floating logs, (T62) trying to pry them free. (T63) "Let me through," cried Scruffy, (T64) but the men paid no attention to him. (T65) They pushed the logs apart (T66) so they would drift with the river to the sawmill in the town.
Cd: C177 Scruffy will get through, won't he?
Tr: (T67) Scruffy bumped along the jostling logs. (T68)
"Ouch!" he cried (T69) as two logs bumped together.
IT03 In some countries where Cd: Come in.

(TAPE IS SWITCHED OFF)
Tr: T178 In some countries, << >> they cut those trees down T179 <<where there's lots and lots of timber and lots and lots of ...
Cd: C180 Miss, why'd you turn the tape on?
Tr: lots and lots of trees ...
Cd: C181 And logs.
Tr: and logs>>
T182 and << >> instead of putting them on a truck
T183 <<because they're so heavy and so big>> IT04 and carr and
T184 George H, please sit down
T185 and be still.
T186 Instead of getting all these big trucks to carry all these logs down
T187 it's much, much easier to put them into a river
T188 and for them to float downstream on the river
IT05 Where are these
T189 What are these logs used for, do you think?
T190 George H, I have said it again.
T191 Sit
T192 and don't move.

T193 It's very distracting for me to have you moving around disturbing the other children.
 T194 Chris?
 T195 What are these logs used for Renee?
 Cd: C196 Paper.
 Tr: T197 Good girl.
 T198 For paper.
 T199 This paper here is made out of wood.
 T200 Good girl.
 T201 That's a very good answer.
 T202 I didn't think of that.
 T203 I was thinking of something else.
 T204 What else is ... are these logs used for?
 T205 Christopher?
 Cd: C206 You can make them for boats.
 Tr: T207 Yes some boats are made out of wood.
 T208 Not very many these days.
 T209 Most boats are made out of metal
 T210 but some boats are made out of wood
 T211 or were.
 T212 What was the story we read the other day about the boat that was made out of wood?
 T213 What was it called?
 T214 When there was a great big flood T215 and ... and two animals of every sort were put on the boat.
 T216 Yes?
 Cd: C217 The Book of Noah.
 Tr: T218 Good girl.
 T219 The Book of Noah, Noah's Ark.
 T220 Okay.
 T221 What else was ... are these ... are these logs used for?
 T222 Paper is one.
 T223 Tony.
 T224 Shane.
 Cd: C225 Growing trees?
 Tr: T226 Yeah, maybe.
 T227 Rory?
 Cd: C228 Um .. To make a house out of?
 Tr: T229 Good girl ...
 T230 ah, good girl
 T231 Sorry.
 T232 Good boy.
 Cd: C233 To make a tree house out of.
 Tr: T234 Yes, to make a tree house out of T235 and maybe to build some houses out of T236 and all these tables are made out of wood T237 so there's lots and lots of things for logs to be used for.
 Cd: C238 I've got another one.
 Tr: T239 What?
 Cd: C240 Swings.
 Tr: T241 Yes, swings or seats for the swings.
 T242 Okay.
 Cd: C243 Chairs.
 Tr: T244 Yes, chairs as well.
 T245 Okay.

T246 So here we have him saying, "Ouch!"
 T247 as he was bumped between logs
 (T70) "This is a fine river (T71) but it's very busy and very big for me. (T72) He was proud (T73) when he sailed under the bridges. (T74) My river is so wide and so deep that people must build bridges to cross it. (T75) The river moved through big towns now instead of villages.
 T248 Who knows what the bridge in Sydney is called, the big bridge that goes across the harbour?
 T249 Um ... Belinda?
 Cd: C250 The Harbour Bridge.
 Tr: T251 Good girl.
 T252 It goes ... it's called the Sydney Harbour Bridge.
 T253 This here bridge is very different.
 Cd: C254 Mrs J?
 Tr: T255 Hold on.
 Cd: C256 Some time you will see the Lego centre.
 Tr: T257 That's right.
 T258 Exactly.
 T259 That's right, yes.
 Cd: C260 And the Sydney Tower.
 Cd: C261 And sometimes I will see the water from Luna Park.
 Tr: T262 Yes, that's right.
 Cd: IC06 And sometimes ...
 Tr: T263 Ah put your hand up please.
 T264 Sit up, Tony.
 Cd: C265 Sometimes we will see the tower.
 Tr: T266 Yes, you can see Sydney Tower
 Cd: C267 I saw it on the way back.
 Tr: and Sydney Harbour Bridge
 T268 Ah Adrian?
 Cd: C269 Um ... Sometimes ... West Australia
 C270 'cause I've been to Western Australia in my holidays
 Tr: T271 Mm.
 T272 Christopher?
 Cd: C273 Seen it
 C274 but ... and ... and ... it ... it was bigger and bigger
 C275 and it was a big it was a big, big beach.
 Tr: T276 Mm.
 IT07 Did you
 T277 When you went to see the Tall Ships on your excursion
 T278 did you see Sydney Harbour Bridge?
 Cdn: C279 Yes.
 Tr: T280 Did you go across it on the bus or not?
 Cd: C281 Mm.
 Cd: C282 No.
 Cd: C283 Yes.
 Tr: T284 Okay.
 Cd: C285 Yes we did.
 Tr: T286 No, you don't.
 T287 For me to go home
 T288 I have to go across that bridge.
 T289 Every afternoon.
 Cd: C290 So do I.
 Tr: T291 Across the bridge.

T292 Yes, Justin?
 Cd: C293 And you'll see the boats.
 Tr: T294 Yes, that's right.
 T295 You'll see all the boats from the bridge.
 T296 Okay.
 Cd: C297 *And you see the Chinese boat.
 Cd: C298 *My mummy said it's ugly.
 Tr: T299 Shh
 T300 This here is another sort of bridge that you can have.
 T301 There's lots and lots of different sorts of bridges
 T302 and you have them
 T303 to go from one side to the other.
 T304 Okay ...
 T305 Um ...
 (T76) And the bridges over it were very wide, wide enough so that cars and trucks and buses could cross all at once.
 T306 Trains go across the Sydney Harbour Bridge as well, T307 trains and buses and cars and trucks and all sorts of ...
 Cd: C308 *And people.
 Cd: IC08 *Now can we
 Tr: T309 Shh!
 (T77) The river got deeper and deeper. (T78) The river grew *wider and wider.
 Cdn: C310 *wider and wider.
 Tr: T311 Shh!
 (T79) The river moved faster and faster. (T80) It hurried Scruffy along. (T81) I feel like a train instead of a tugboat! (T82) He was proud (T83) when he passed the old sawmill with its water-wheel.
 Cd: C312 Can you show us?
 Tr: T313 There's the sawmill
 T314 and there's the water-wheel.
 Cd: C315 And there's a rainbow rainbow.
 Tr: T316 Good boy.
 T317 That's right.
 T318 There is a rainbow.
 T319 Who saw the rainbow the other morning?
 T320 After it rained
 T321 it was lovely.
 Cd: C322 *I didn't see it.
 Cd: C323 *I knew.
 Tr: T324 *When I was coming to work
 T325 I saw the rainbow.
 T326 I meant to ask you about it.
 Cd: C327 I saw six rainbows.
 Tr: T328 Really?
 Cd: IC09 I I saw
 Tr: T329 Adrian!
 Cd: IC10 I don't like ...
 IC11 I saw
 Tr: T330 Excuse me.
 T331 You should put your hand up
 T332 when you want to answer a
 Cd: C333 I saw twelve
 Tr: T334 Rory, you didn't put your hand up.

T335 You have some wonderful answers
 T336 but you never put your hand up.
 T337 Damian!
 T338 Rory?
 Cd: C339 I saw eleven rainbows.
 Tr: T340 Eleven rainbows?
 T341 *Goodness me.
 Cd: C342 *Twelve, I mean.
 Tr: T343 Twelve?
 T344 Wow.
 T345 Um ... let me see.
 T346 Renee?
 Cd: C347 Every time it finishes raining
 C348 or if it thunders
 C349 I always go outside
 C350 to check if there's a rainbow.
 Tr: T351 Is there?
 T352 Exactly.
 T353 Everytime it rains
 IT12 you can always *after it
 Cd: C354 *Thomas isn't sitting down.
 Tr: T355 Sit down please.
 T356 After it rains,
 T357 after it has finished raining
 T358 you can go outside
 T359 and you nearly always see a lovely rainbow.
 Cd: IC13 Mrs
 Tr: T360 Ah ... Shannon?
 T361 George, sit down please.
 Cd: C362 I saw this.
 Cd: C363 I want to go to the toilet.
 Tr: T364 Do you?
 T365 You have to ask
 T366 if you can go to the toilet.
 T367 George
 T368 Say, "Miss R may I please go to the toilet?"
 T369 Open your mouth up.
 T370 Come on.
 T371 I've heard you yelling out in the yard.
 T372 You can talk louder than that.
 T373 Here.
 T374 If you don't ask me
 T375 you cannot go
 T376 and you have to go to the toilet
 T377 so say "Miss R, may I please go to the toilet".
 Cd: C378 May I please go to the toilet?
 Tr: T379 Yes alright go to the toilet.
 T380 Ah Christopher?
 Cd: C381 I was riding a car
 C382 and then ... and rainbows can kill you.
 Tr: T383 Rainbows can kill you?
 T384 I don't think so.
 Cd: C385 Miss R.
 Cdn: C386 No.
 Tr: T387 Now lets finish our story,
 T388 then we've got some other work we have to do.
 Cd: C389 Rainbow.
 Cd: C390 Can I please go to the toilet?

Tr: T391 Not just yet.
T392 You have to wait
T393 until George comes out.

Cd: C394 Mrs R.

Tr: T395 We all ready to keep on going?

Cdn: C396 *Yes.

Cd: C397 *Mrs R.

Tr: T398 Shh!
T399 Damian's not ready.
T400 He's playing with the boy next to him.

Cd: C401 Miss R?

Tr: T402 Yes, Renee?

Cd: C403 When I watched Punky Brewster
C404 they were always got sent a rainbow.

Cd: C405 It's broken.

Tr: T406 Boys!
T407 Stop it.
T408 Chris up here.
T409 Quickly.
T410 Adrian.
T411 Now hands down please.
T412 I have to finish the story.
T413 Keep your hands to yourself.
T414 Do not touch the person next to you
T415 and pay attention.
T416 How are you going to learn
T417 if you don't listen to me?
T418 You won't learn anything at all.
(T84) Then it began to rain. (T85) And high in the hills and mountains the winter snow melted. (T86)
Water filled the brooks, (T87) and rushed from there into the small rivers. (T88) Faster and faster it flowed to the great river where Scruffy sailed.
(T89) He pitched and tossed in the waves. (T90)
"There is too much water in this river. (T91) Soon it will splash over the top, (T92) and what a flood there will be."

T419 Who knows what a flood is?

T420 Rebecca?

Cd: C421 It means ... it means you can't get past.

Tr: T422 Mm maybe.
T423 Renee?

Cd: C424 A big flood.

Cd: C425 It means that the water is getting bigger and bigger that you couldn't stand up in it.

Tr: T426 Good girl.
T427 A flood is when there's lots and lots of rain and the rivers get too full and the water flows over the sides and it comes in and goes out ... moves over everything.

Cd: C428 And it overflows.

Cd: C429 And we couldn't get over the road.

Tr: T430 Yes.
(T93) Great armies of men came to save the fields and towns from the rushing water. (T94) They filled bags with sand (T95) and put them at the edge of the river. (T96) They were making higher banks for the river (T97) to hold the water back. (T98) The water

rose higher and higher. (T99) The men built the sandbanks higher and higher. (T100) Higher went the river. (T101) Higher went the sand banks. (T102) At last the water rose no more. (T103) The floodwater rushed on to the sea, (T104) and Scruffy raced along with the flood. (T105) The people and the fields and the towns were safe.

Cd: C431 That was Scruffy in the water.

Tr: T432 When there's floods
T433 lots of people get stranded.
T434 That means they can't get out of their houses
T435 and they have to have aeroplanes
T436 to come in
T437 to drop food to them
T438 'cause you can't get on the roads.
T439 The roads are all covered with water
T440 so floods can be very, very bad things.
T441 *Here we have some animals.

Cd: C442 *Water on the bridge.

Tr: T443 Shh
T444 There's animals.
T445 Stranded
T446 On here we have a cat stranded in a tree
T447 and they're building sandbags along here.

Cd: C448 Why?

Tr: T449 To hold the river in
T450 so it doesn't come onto their land
T451 and flood all these here.

Cd: IC14 There's all

Tr: T452 If your hand is up, Adam,
T453 I'll ask you to speak,
T454 not any other way.

(T106) On went the river to the sea. (T107) At last Scuffy sailed into a big city. (T108) Here the river widened (T109) and all about were docks and wharves.

T455 There's all the big ships that come in into port.
T456 They carry clothes, books, cars from other countries.

(T110) Oh it was a busy place and a noisy place.

(T111) The cranes whirred (T112) as they swung the cargoes into great ships. (T113) The porters shouted (T114) as they carried suitcases and boxes on board.

T457 There we have a crane taking something off the ship.
T458 and here we have men carrying bags onto the ship
T459 and here we have a crane putting a bow onto the ship as well.

Cd: C460 Where's Scruffy?

Tr: T461 There's Scruffy right there ...

T462 ah no

T463 here's here's Scruffy down here.

T464 Look how tiny she is

T465 when compared to the rest of the big boats.

Cd: C466 It's a boy!

Cd: C467 That's what I said.

Cd: C468 You said look how tiny she is.

Cd: C469 It's a boy Scruffy.

Tr: T470 I've been saying look how small he is.
T471 Okay.
(T115) Boats ... boat whistles blew (T116) and truck motors roared. (T117) Taxis honked (T118) and people shouted. (T119) Scruffy tooted his horn (T120) but nobody noticed.

Cd: C472 Why didn't he turn into a big boat?
Cd: C473 Miss R?
Tr: T474 Yes?
Cd: C475 Can I go to the toilet?
Tr: T476 Yes.
T477 Send George H back in please.
(T121) When Scruffy saw the sea (T122) he was frightened. (T123) "Oh, oh, there is no beginning (T124) and there is no end to the sea. (T125) I wish I could find the man with the polka-dot tie and his little boy. "
T478 He's very scared, isn't he?
Cdn: C479 Yes.
C480 No.

Tr: (T126) Just as the little red painted tugboat sailed past the last piece of land (T127) a hand reached out (T128) and picked him up. (T129) And there was the man with the polka-dot tie and his little boy beside him. (T130) Scruffy is home now with the man with the polka-dot tie and his little boy. (T131)
He sails from one end of the bathtub to the other.
(T132) "This is the place for a little red painted
...
T481 George H, back in here.
T482 George ...
T483 No George.
T484 Over here.
T485 Quickly.
T486 There.
T487 Don't touch him please.
"This is the place for a red painted tugboat T488 (T133) and this is the life for ... me."

Cd: C489 Me.
Tr: T490 There he is there.
T491 Home at last.

the window (T86) and ran into the car wash. (T87)
"The car wash monster's got Offenbach," shrieked
Anna and Ben. (T88) Cindy rushed inside the car barks. (T90) "The car wash monster's trapped Offenbach and Cindy," they shrieked. (T91) They (T101) She grabbed at Offenbach, (T102) but he dodged Cindy and the tentacle tongues. (T103) He barked and snapped at the bristly lips ... and the water squirts.

Cd: C137 Oh!
 Tr: (T104) Then Anna and Ben laughed too. (T105) The car wash monster tickled them lovingly with its tentacle tongues (T106) and brushed them with its bristly lips. (T107) It squirted and sloshed water, (T108) gurgling happily. (T109) "Come on!" shouted Cindy to the car wash monster. (T110) "Come on!" shouted Anna and Ben. (T111) "Come out!" yelled Dad. (T112) "Come out!" shouted Mum. (T113) "Come out of there!" shouted the car drivers. (T114) "Come out," said the manager. (T115) But Anna, Ben and Cindy couldn't hear for the roar of the car wash monster, Offenbach's yapping and their own laughter. (T116) Then the bristly lips stopped brushing (T117) and the tentacle tongues hung still. (T118) The car wash monster gave a sigh of contentment. (T119) Ben, Anna, Cindy and Offenbach ran out. (T120) "Get into the car," said Mum firmly. (T121) At last it was their turn. (T122) Anna, Ben and Cindy wound up the windows. (T123) Offenbach dashed from side to side (T124) barking and pawing. Little Red Riding Hood.

T002 Put up your hand

T003 if you have heard that story before.

T004 *Hands down.

Cd: C005 *This one's a scary one.

Tr: (T1) Once upon a time there was a sweet little girl who was loved by everyone who knew her, especially her grandmother. (T2) Once she gave her a little red velvet cloak. (T3) It was so becoming and she liked it so much that she would never wear anything else (T4) so she got the name of Little Red Riding Hood.

Cd: C006 'Scuse me Miss.

Tr: (T5) One day her mother said to her, "Come here Little Red Riding Hood. (T6) Take this cake and bottle of wine to Grandmother. (T7) She is weak and ill (T8) and it will do her good. (T9) Go quickly (T10) before it gets too hot. (T11) Don't loiter along the way (T12) nor run (T13) or you will fall (T14) and break the bottle. (T15) When you get there (T16) don't forget to say, 'Good morning.' " (T17) "I will do just as you tell me," Little Red Riding Hood promised her mother. (T18) Her grandmother lived far away in the wood a good half hour from the village. (T19) When she got to the wood (T20) she met a wolf. (T21) But Little Red Riding Hood did not know what a wicked animal he was (T22) so she was not a bit afraid of him. (T23) "Good morning Little Red Riding Hood," he said. (T24) "Good morning Wolf," she said. (T25) "Where are you going so early, Little Red Riding Hood?" (T26) "To Grandmother's." (T27) "What do you w have in your basket?" (T28) "Cake. (T29) We baked yesterday (T30) so I'm taking a cake to her. (T31) She wants something to make her well." (T32) "Where does your grandmother live Little Red Riding Hood?" (T33) "A good quarter of an hour further into the wood. (T34) Her house stands under the three big oak trees near a hedge of nut trees, (T35) which you must know," said Little Red Riding Hood. (T36) The wolf thought. (T37) "This tender little creature will be a plump morsel. (T38) She'll be nicer than the old woman. (T39) I must be cunning (T40) and snap them both up." (T41) He walked along with Little Red Riding Hood for a while. (T42) Then he said, "Look at the pretty flowers Little Red Riding Hood. (T43) Why don't you look about you? (T44) I don't believe you even hear the birds sing."

Cd: C007 Mm.

Tr: (T45) Little Red Riding Hood raised her eyes. (T46) When she saw the sunlight dancing through the trees and all the bright flowers (T47) she thought, "I'm sure Grandmother would be pleased (T48) if I took her a bunch of fresh flowers. (T49) It is still quite early. (T50) I shall have plenty of time to pick them." (T51) So she left the path (T52) and wandered off among the trees (T53) to pick the flowers. (T54) Each time she picked one (T55) she always saw another prettier one further on (T56) so she went deeper and deeper into the forest. (T57) In the meantime the wolf went straight off to Grandmother's cottage ... (T58) and knocked at the door. (KNOCKS) (T59) "Who is there?" (T60) "Little Red Riding Hood, (T61) bringing you a cake. (T62) Open the door." (T63) "Lift the latch," called out the old woman. (T64) "I'm too weak to get up." (T65) The wolf lifted the latch (T66) and the door sprang open. (T67) He went straight in and up to the bed (T68) without saying a word. (T69) And ate up the poor old woman. (T70) Then he put on her nightdress and cap, (T71) got into the bed (T72) and drew the curtains. (T73) Little Red Riding Hood picked flowers (T74) till she could carry no more. (T75) Then she remembered her grandmother again. (T76) She was astonished (T77) when she got to the house (T78) to find the door open, (T79) and when she entered the room (T80) everything seemed strange. (T81) She felt quite frightened (T82) but she did not know why. (T83) "Generally, I like coming to see Grandmother so much," she thought. (T84) "Good morning Grandmother," she replied she cried. (T85) But she received no hug. (T86) Then she went up to the bed (T87) and drew the curtains back. (T88) There lay her grandmother. (T89) *But sh C009 Can I go to the toilet?

Tr: But she had drawn her cap down over her face (T90) and looked very odd. (T91) "Oh Grandmother, what big ears you have," she said. (T92) "All the better to hear you with my dear." (T93) "Grandmother, what big eyes you have." (T94) "All the better to see you with my dear." (T95) "What big hands you have Grandmother." (T96) "All the better to catch hold of you with my dear." (T97) "But Grandmother, what big teeth you have." (T98) "All the better to eat you with my dear." (T99) Hardly had the wolf said this (T100) when he made a spring out of bed (T101) and swallowed poor Little Red Riding Hood.

T010 Look at those teeth.

Cd: C011 Look at those teeth.

Tr: (T102) A huntsman went past the house (T103) and thought, "How loudly the old lady is snoring. (T104) I must see if there is anything the matter with her." (T105) So he went into the house and up to the bed (T106) where he found the wolf fast asleep. (T107) "Do I find you here?" he said. (T108) "Long enough have I looked for you." (T109) He raised his gun to shoot (T110) when it just occurred to him that perhaps the wolf had eaten up the old lady (T111) and that she might still be saved. (T112) So he took a knife (T113) and began cutting open the sleeping wolf. (T114) But first he saw the little red cloak (T115) and after a few more sa slashes a little girl sprang out (T116) and cried, "Oh how frightened I was. (T117) It was so dark inside the wolf." (T118) Next the old grandmother came, (T119) alive (T120) but hardly able to breathe. (T121) Little Red Riding Hood brought some big stones (T122) with which they filled the wolf. (T123) He awoke (T124) and tried to jump up (T125) but the stones dragged him back (T126) and he fell down dead. (T127) They were all quite happy now. (T128) The huntsman skinned the wolf (T129) and took the skin home. (T130) The grandmother ate the ca cake which Little Red Riding Hood had brought (T131) and she soon felt quite strong. (T132) Little Red Riding Hood thought to herself, "I will never again wander off into the forest as long as I live (T133) when my mother forgives it."

Tr: T001 All right, I've got something down here on the floor that's rather special.
T002 I wonder who's ready for it?
T003 Let me see ...
T004 Sitting up nice ...
T005 It's really special this one.
T006 Actually I went into Mrs J's office at lunchtime T007 and I thought I just want a book that's just a little bit different, a little bit different to just the ordinary ones we usually read straight after lunch ...
T008 and I found this one.
T009 It's a rather big book, isn't it?
Cdn: C010 Yes.
Tr: T011 It's almost the same size ... as ... the books we use when we're reading our big books *of a morning.
Cd: C012 *We can't see.
Tr: T013 Would you come back to me later girls, please?
T014 I'm busy at the moment.

 Cdn: (LAUGHTER)
 Tr: T078 Oh this page isn't part of the story either.
 T079 This is another part of a book that sometimes writers put in
 T080 and it's called a dedication page
 T081 and it says To Josieve,
 T082 Sorry
 (T1) To Josie, Jennifer and Christopher, (T2) whose love and patience seem as infinite as the heavens on a starry night.
 T083 So this writer perhaps he wrote this story just for those special people.
 T084 Let's see if the next page is the start of the story.
 T085 Put up your hand
 T086 if it is.
